

A STYLE TO REMEMBER

PRESS RELEASE ESCAPE TO HAVEN AT THE CLUB AT THE SAUJANA COUNT DOWN TO THE OPENING

Kuala Lumpur, 1st August 2008 – Thirty days to go to the grand opening of The Club at The Saujana Kuala Lumpur. This most luxurious boutique hotel on the fringe of Kuala Lumpur is the newest hotel managed by the Singapore-based General Hotel Management (GHM) Limited. Nestled amidst 160 hectares of lush tropical gardens and surrounded by two 18-hole championship golf courses, the 105-room resort is a wonderful addition to its sister properties in Malaysia, namely The Datai and The Andaman in Langkawi as well as The Carcosa Seri Negara in Kuala Lumpur.

During the month of August, test weekends will be conducted whereby a selected few are invited to try out and stay at The Club at The Saujana. These test weekends are crucial to fine-tune the services and facilities offered to guests. The team members are rearing to go and with it the excitement to open on 31st of August 2008.

All guests staying at any of the rooms or suites at The Club at The Saujana enjoy a great array of benefits and complimentary amenities. Whether you are staying in the smartly-designed Executive Club Room or the luxurious Executive Club Suite, guests are entitled to a daily breakfast for two at The Restaurant, complimentary mini-bar (replenished daily), WI-FI Internet access, laundry, cocktails and canapés in the evening and all-day tea/coffee at The Lounge. The Club Concierge will be pleased to arrange either a tee-off time at one of the two golf courses at the Saujana Golf and Country Club or a personal shopping butler to escort you into town by private limousine.

To celebrate the opening of The Club at The Saujana, a special opening package called 'Escape to Haven' offers a one night stay in an Executive Club room for MYR 540 per person based on double occupancy. In addition to the above room benefits, this package includes a full-body massage spa treatment for two at The Spa and a dinner for two at The Restaurant. Valid from 1st September to 31st October 2008, this opening special is aimed to pamper those who want to relax and take a short break outside the city center's hustle and bustle. Why not surprise your loved one to celebrate a special occasion? Or purchase a gift certificate for friends, family or a business partner.
