GHM Bids Farewell to See Soo Eng Vice-President Sales

(Singapore, June 1, 2010) – GHM, a global leader in the hospitality industry renowned for its exclusive and stylish hotels and resorts worldwide regretfully announced the decision of Ms. See Soo Eng, Vice-President Sales to retire.

Ms. See spent close to 15 years with GHM during its most formative years and has been a dedicated contributor to the overall success of the group's growth and positioning as one of the most prestigious hotel collections in the world.

Hans Jenni, Director and President of GHM said, "Soo Eng will leave a void in the hearts of all of us at GHM, but we wish her the very best as she transitions into a different stage in her life where she may be able to spend more time with her family and friends".

Commenting on her retirement, See Soo Eng said, "It is with much sadness that I leave GHM as after having spent so many years intimately associated with such wonderfully amazing hotels and interacting with the most attentive staff and professional business partners, I feel that I leave behind a part of me."

Of Singaporean nationality, Soo Eng began her career with GHM at The Chedi Phuket and subsequently undertook various responsibilities eventually rising to the highest Sales position at the Corporate level within the company.
