

THE NAM HAI

HOI AN, VIETNAM

New beginnings at The Nam Hai

Vietnam is an exotic, culturally rich country rooted in tradition. It's as much that way today as it was centuries ago. To find evidence, one need not look further than the way it celebrates. Weddings especially... it is an important occasion as they come.

The Nam Hai in Hoi An recognizes that, which is why we offer and organize elegant, Vietnamese-themed resort weddings - replete with traditions and customs that have been observed for centuries at the core.

THE NAM HAI

HOI AN, VIETNAM

There is no shortage of wedding ceremony venues to choose from, either – whether the bride and groom prefer an intimate ceremony at a private Pool Villa, a bigger event on the beach or the property’s authentic Vietnamese shrine, which has been painstakingly restored by the hotel and is now an integral part of its expansive landscape.

Reception venues vary from a number of gorgeous poolside gardens overlooking the beach to the exclusive patios and gardens of the resort’s luxurious villas. The resort’s versatile and open main pavilion – which can seat up to 90 for a buffet dinner, and be outfitted with traditional Vietnamese lanterns to evoke a scene reminiscent of Indochine – is always an option, too.

Of course, the resort’s crown jewel is its private stretch of white sand beach, where we have hosted a number of memorable themed events and wedding dinners. With the sea gently lapping on the shorelines and that blissful, ever-present breeze blowing in from off the East Sea, the beach makes the ideal venue for any event.

The possibilities are truly endless at The Nam Hai. There’s no wedding request we won’t try to accommodate, in ‘A Style to Remember.’ Inquire today.
